NATIONAL STUDENT LOAN DATA SYSTEM

NSLDS stands for The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) which is the U.S. Department of Education's database for federal student aid. It contains data from schools, agencies. Guaranty loans, Direct Loans, and other Department of Education agencies. It is typically available 24 hours a day/7days a week. This site will provide information regarding information on loan types, and/or grant amounts, outstanding balances, loan statuses, disbursements, and holder of your loan(s). To access the NSLDS website, you will need your Social Security Number and FSA ID (formerly as PIN). Here is the cite to get started. https://studentaid.gov/
